

All your creatures look to you, LORD

PSALM 104:27-30

tr. Trinity Psalter Hymnal Joint Venture

All your creatures look to you, LORD,
waiting for the food they need.

When you give, your creatures gather;
from your open hand they feed.

When you hide your face, they're troubled;
Lifeless, they to dust go down.

When you send your Spirit, you create them and renew the ground.
